

THE STOCK MARKET

The following quotations are furnished by the reliable brokerage firm of Kenneth Donnellan & Co.:

While Saturday is proverbially on the stock exchange a slow day, yesterday was an exception to the rule. Transactions were heavy and the market closed strong, both in San Francisco and Goldfield. A rumor that Combination Fraction had struck rich ore on the 600-foot level caused the price to rise to $1.55, at which figure there was some little trading. There were advances all along the line on the San Francisco exchange and brokers are predicting that the coming week will experience a still further advance in mining securities.

ELINOR GLYN'S PLAY.
LONDON, July 25.—Elinor Glyn's dramatization of her own play, "Three Weeks," is decidedly amateurish. Mrs. Glyn had a tea party at the Adelphi theater this afternoon and invited her English and American friends to a private performance of "Three Weeks." She sprang a big surprise by playing the leading role of the lady herself. There was plenty of staging, many flowers and much scenery.

JOHN MURPHY
PASSES AWAY

KEPT DEAD HORSE WELLS ROAD HOUSE FOR THIRD OF CENTURY IN HONOR.

John Murphy, who has kept the Dead Horse Wells ranch for nearly a third of a century, is no more.

He was one of the most noted characters in the state. Born in Cape Breton Island, he received the first cable message ever transmitted across the Atlantic.

He settled at Dead Horse Wells when freighting was carried on by 22-mule teams between Wadsworth, Downville, Belmont and Candelaria and since Rawhide was struck he was again in the lime light.

Murphy was 75 years of age, and has two daughters in this city, where his body will be brought for burial.

He had the reputation of having never turned a hungry man or horse away from his table, water and feed during the whole time he lived at Dead Horse Wells, and is known to nearly every old-timer in western Nevada.—Reno Journal.

LOSES $7,000 AT ROULETT WHEEL

One of the stiffest roulette plays which has come up within recent months occurred Wednesday night when A. D. Myers of Los Angeles and Goldfield dropped in the vicinity of $7,000 at the Stock Exchange bar to Dick Jones. Mr. Myers, who is a well known mine operator largely interested in this district, and reputed to be a millionaire, was playing $500 on the columns and colors, and $20 straight up on the numbers. At one time he was $4,000 winner, but his luck changed and he lost rapidly.

Mr. Jones is the man who a few months ago won control of the Big Bell mine from John C. O. on the same wheel. In this instance the play lasted all night.—Bullfrog Miner.

WOMAN'S HEAD
WAS THE PENALTY

FREIBURG, Saxony, July 24.—Grete Beier, the 18-year-old daughter of the mayor of Freiberg, was beheaded last night some time between dark and dawn, in punishment for the murder of the man to whom she was engaged to be married.

The executioner reached the city last night. He carried a box containing the ax with which he did his work and brought with him also a suit of evening clothes. The wearing of this garb is an official requirement of the somber occasion. The preparations for the execution at the prison had been completed and the man did his work quietly and privately and departed as quietly as he came.

The king of Saxony had refused a pardon.

CASH OFFER FOR MINE IS REFUSED

Every one here is so busy that we hardly think of informing the outside world what the mines are doing, says the Eureka Sentinel's Hamilton correspondent. A Goldfield man offered $7000 in cash for the mine of Farina and Cinderella in which ore was struck this winter, but the offer was rejected. The McEllin, the Rocco, Homestake, the Fay and the Joanni would ship but can not at present secure pack animals to get the ore down, and so while they are awaiting the owners, Messrs. Schenck and Bragg, are breaking out and sacking more of the rich silver-lead ore, of which they have enough in sight to keep busy all summer. More strangers are coming in every day, and while there is no boom, we feel proud in saying Hamilton has no hard times and no idle men.

MUSTAIN OFFERS A BIG SIDE BET

Terry Mustain means business. He is willing to risk money on his chances and this morning he sent his manager, Gregory Mitchell, to the office of the Bulletin to post the sum of $1000 with the sporting editor to bind a match with Joe Thomas or any other prominent fighter of his weight, which is also to go as a side bet if the other people want to wager on the outcome. Mustain said he came here with the intention of fighting and he will tackle any 165-pounder in the business who has a reputation. This money will be allowed to remain in the hands of the sporting editor for two weeks, so any boxer who has a $1000 lying loose and is on the lookout for trouble in the glove line, all that he will have to do is to walk into the Bulletin office and make a noise like ready money and there will be something stirring in fightville. Mustain says he will sign for a finish fight or for one limited to twenty rounds.—San Francisco Bulletin.

SILVER BOW IS TO THE FRONT

James Kautz came in from Tybo, Nye county, last week bringing with him some handsome specimens from Silver Bow District, 160 miles southeast of the form place and 55 miles east of Tonopah. The rock contains silver and gold values and will pay up into the thousands, says the Eureka Sentinel.

The formation of the country is rhyolitic interspersed with quartz. They are contact veins between rhyolite and lime and can be traced for thousands of feet on the surface. The country for miles about Silver Bow District is located, several hundred claims being already taken up.

At present about 50 people are in that section, two-thirds being prospectors and mining men, looking for valuable properties.

Wood and water are plentiful, water being struck almost anywhere at a few feet.

The claims from which these rich specimens brought in by Mr. Kautz were taken are owned by Bert L. Smith and John Gregovich, formerly of Eureka, and all show large well defined ledges.

The Silver Bow Belle, one of the richest mines in the district, has already produced ore that has assayed $2.50 per pound, besides large bodies of low grade ore.

The lucky boy has a ledge 35 feet wide of free milling ore and averages about $48 per ton.

The Clifford property of Silver Bow has a very large body of ore, which from its character is believed will assay into the hundreds.

On account of the inadequate transportation facilities in shipping the ore to the railroad the development of the district is greatly retarded, but in the event of the completion of the Ely and Goldfield railroad the present obstacle will be overcome and the output of ore from Silver Bow, it is thought, will then rival the best camps in Nevada.

Mr. Kautz says the district presents splendid opportunities for men of capital to secure properties which possess every indication of developing into paying propositions, and the wonder is that that section has lain dormant so many years without its merits having become known.

BRIDE'S MESSAGE
STOPS TROUBLE

When Daniel Denehey, a saloon-keeper of Crockett, was about to swear to a complaint yesterday for the arrest of Glenn Davis, a prosperous young mining man, who eloped with pretty Kate Denehey to Marshfield, Oregon, he received a telegram from the bride saying that she and Davis had been married on Saturday, were perfectly happy and would continue to be so if the parental blessing were granted.

Denehey changed his mind about getting out a warrant and wrote the couple a letter, containing his forgiveness. The elopement was the outcome of a childhood romance.

Davis formerly resided in Crockett, and some time ago went to Nevada, where he made a small fortune in mining. His early admiration for Kate Denehey brought him back to his old home, and he renewed his suit for her hand, despite her parents' objection on account of her age. They met by prearrangement last Saturday and went to Vallejo, where they were wedded, and started immediately for Oregon on a honeymoon trip.—San Francisco Chronicle.

We wonder if this could possibly be our old friend Glen L. Davis, of T-Doughnut-Phillips $20,000 libel suit fame, pressed by Needles and Averill. The prosperous young mining man of southern Nevada sounds good. The money paid for the marriage license must have been some of the coin wrung from the Bonanza in the shape of damages for mental anguish. And perhaps the money for the wedding trip was the net results of a car of ore from the O'Meara mine, which Glen L. shipped to the American Smelting and Refining company at Salt Lake. In both cases it must have been stage money that was passed out, for the libel suit against the Bonanza was dismissed and the costs taxed to the mental-anguish defendant, while the moneys from the car of ore were placed in the hands of the court in Salt Lake waiting for the case to come to trial.

CLAIBORNE SAYS
VICTIM OF PLOT

RENO, July 25.—William Claiborne, who was arrested Wednesday evening by Sheriff Ferrel on a warrant held by Deputy Sheriff McCullom of Rawhide for grand larceny was last night released on $1000 bail furnished by Charles Sparks and S. S. Dennison, pending the hearing of the arguments on the writ of habeas corpus issued yesterday by Judge Orr.

The matter of the application for writ of habeas corpus will come up before Judge Pike Monday morning. It has developed that Claiborne was the principal witness in the trial of the murderers of Silva, Preston and Smith, who are now doing time at Carson penitentiary. It is claimed by Claiborne that his arrest is the outcome of a plot by people at Rawhide to punish and humiliate him for giving evidence against the murderers.

It is alleged in the application for a writ of habeas corpus that Claiborne was merely a passenger in the automobile which he is alleged to have stolen and was coming from Pawhide to Reno.

GENERAL CUT IN RATES ASSURED

CHICAGO, July 24.—The decision of the Rock Island to put on a rate of 1 1/2 cents for merchants' meetings to be held in Chicago and other cities bids fair to bring down an avalanche of reduced rates. The Alton road is preparing to make similar rates for fully a score of conventions and meetings in the east and in the west.

The executive committee of the Western Passenger association will meet tomorrow to consider the entire situation, but it is said that nothing can now stop the making of reduced rates in all western territory. This insures a big attendance at all state and county fairs and numerous small assemblies, which have revived since low rates are assured.

GREAT ACTIVITY OF WESTERN PACIFIC

The Western Pacific has announced that the Western Union Telegraph company is now rapidly assembling poles and other material at Stockton to be prepared to rush the construction of a railroad telegraph line from Stockton along the Western Pacific's right of way to Oakland, says the Humboldt Star. The Western Union already has 150 miles of line in operation along the Western Pacific from Salt Lake west to Shafter, and that same stretch has all stations, water tanks, coal chutes and section houses completed and in permanent condition. But no station buildings have yet been started in California. Sacramento, Stockton and Oakland will have the biggest and showiest buildings.

Two thousand tons of steel rails, enough for fifteen miles of track with eighty-five pound rails, are now on their way west from the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company's factory at Minnequa near Pueblo. The Western Pacific has on hand 450,000 ties, or enough for 150 miles of tracks, and enough bridge and steel material on the ground to keep the men busy for the next three months before more is needed.

The company has twenty big locomotives in use, 700 flat cars, 500 ballast cars, and one coach and a combination passenger and baggage car used on the run above Oroville.

The Western Pacific tunnel across Alameda creek, just west of Niles is completed, and track laying toward Oakland will be pressed forward rapidly, there being but two minor bridges to construct on the way, one an overhead crossing above the tracks of the Southern Pacific at Halvern, and the other a bridge over San Lorenzo creek, says the San Francisco Chronicle.

When Oakland has been reached rail-laying in California will cease for this year, as nothing would be gained by adding minor stretches in the mountains until the tunnels are finished.

The gap between Marysville and Sacramento has been closed, so that the Western Pacific has a continuous line of 196 miles from Alameda creek, just west of Niles, to Berry creek, twenty miles east of and above Oroville.

Regular freight and passenger service is in operation daily between Oroville and Berry creek and it saves Quincy and other towns in Plumas county twenty miles of their difficult old-time mountain teaming with supplies.

The Flower Lake mile-long tunnel will be completed by October, but the Spring Garden tunnel and the Summit tunnel at Beckwith pass will require nine or ten months more. It is predicted by the engineering department that the east and west ends of the track will come together at or very near the Beckwith pass, which is at the summit of the Sierra, in a low saddle-like depression.

We still have a few pairs of Powne's 16-button silk gloves, the best made. Former price $2, closing out at $1.50. Colors: blue, brown, black and white. 7-25-11.

STEEL MEN GIVE GOOD REPORTS

NEW YORK, July 25.—That there is a gradual, steady increase in progress in all lines of business was the opinion expressed by the presidents of the various subsidiary companies of the United States Steel corporation at a meeting here today, according to a statement given out by President W. E. Corey of the parent company after the meeting.

Corey said the reports of the steel men present were uniformly favorable. He said that about 56 per cent of the finishing capacity of the various plants controlled by the United States Steel corporation were now in operation and that additional capacity would be put in operation as conditions warrant.

REVERSE DECISION OF LOWER COURT

CARSON, July 25.—A decision was handed down by the supreme court yesterday in the case of Alexander Forsyth against J. K. Chambers, justice of the peace at Manhattan, reversing the decision of the justice. The proceedings reached the supreme court on a writ of certiorari from the justice court at Manhattan where a judgment had been given against Forsyth for his failure to appear in a case, the judgment being for $72.50 and also $28 costs.

The judgment was annulled on the ground that it was given before the proper time for answering had expired, the defendant having twenty days after the date of publication, four weeks. The opinion was written by Judge Norcross and concurred in by the full court.
